BartonPartners Again Ranks Among Philadelphia Business Journal's Top Architecture Firms

August 29, 2008, Norristown, PA – For the third year in a row, BartonPartners Architects/Planners, Inc. has been recognized as one of the top 25 architectural firms in the Philadelphia Business Journal's 2008 Book of Lists. With nearly 60 employees, the Norristown-based firm ranks as number 17 among architecture firms in the Philadelphia area, tied with our position in the 2007 edition.

"I believe that the collaborative environment we foster, combined with the versatility of our design professionals, is the key to our growth and success over the years," said Tom Barton, Principal. "Our architects and urban designers are authorities on a variety of disciplines, including mixed use and transit oriented development, adaptive reuse, urban infill, multifamily housing, retail and office space."

Philadelphia Business Journal annual "Book of Lists" is the Philadelphia region's version of the Fortune 500. Each year, area corporations and organizations are surveyed and ranked against their competitors within their industries.

About the Firm

BartonPartners is a fully integrated architectural and planning firm, recognized nationally for its innovations in design, with a staff of nearly sixty architects, planners, designers, and landscape designers. Founded in 1990 and committed to facilitating conscientious development, the practice originated in residential development in the Middle Atlantic region, and has evolved to include mixed-use and transit-oriented design, commercial and retail architecture, single- and multi-family projects, 50+ lifestyle communities, adaptive reuse and rehabilitation of existing structures, and urban infill development throughout the United States.
