May 2009, Voorhees, NJ – BartonPartners Architects Planners, Inc. proudly announces Voorhees Town Center was named the “Regional Land Use Project of the Year” by the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission at its annual Celebration of Regional Excellence program. The project had also previously received Smart Growth designation from the Delaware Valley Smart Growth Alliance in 2008.

This mixed-use project, located at the site of the former Echelon Mall in Voorhees, NJ, offers luxury apartments and condominiums, as well as upscale shops, office space, and restaurants. The project was designed by BartonPartners Architects Planners, Langan Engineering, and Cope Linder Architects, for the Pennsylvania Real Estate Investment Trust (PREIT) and Dewey Commercial Investors, L.P.

About the Firm

BartonPartners is a fully integrated architectural and planning firm, recognized nationally for its innovations in design, with a staff of 45+ architects, planners, designers, and landscape designers. Founded in 1990 and committed to facilitating conscientious development, the practice originated in residential development in the Middle Atlantic region, and has evolved to include mixed-use and transit-oriented design, commercial and retail architecture, single- and multi-family projects, 50+ lifestyle communities, adaptive reuse and rehabilitation of existing structures, and urban infill development throughout the United States.
